THE [Numb. 837.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the lateſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, May 21, 1761.

PARIS, January 16.

THE War in Germany will be puſhed next Summer with ſuch Vigour, that former Campaigns will appear but a Jeſt to the next. Broglio's Army will amount to 100,000 Men, and Soubiſe's to 50 or 60,000. The Jews of Metz have undertaken to furniſh 6,000 Oxen for the Subſiſtence of our Forces; and a famous Jew of Nancy, with his Aſſociates, furniſhes Horſes to remount our Cavalry, and draw the Cannon.

Vienna, January 31. Count Henry Joſeph Thierry Daun, Field Marſhal of the Auſtrian Forces, died this Day in the eighty-third Year of his Age. He was Uncle to the King of Pruſſia's Antagoniſt.

LONDON.

Jan. 17. Laſt Week as much Woollen and Linen Cloth as amounted to the Value of 95 l. was diſtributed at Kingſton to poor People that received no Alms of the Pariſh, purſuant to the Will of John Smith, who died near 80 Years ago. This Smith was a common Beggar, and at his Death left annual Legacies to every Pariſh in Surry, to be diſtributed at Chriſtmas; except two Pariſhes, in which he had been whipped as a common Beggar and Vagrant.

Feb. 10. Yeſterday came Advice that the Marſhal de Belleiſle, Miniſter and Secretary of State to the French King for the War Department, died at Verſailles on the 26th paſt, aged 78. It is not yet known who will ſucceed him. It is ſaid he has left to the King his whole Fortune, about 200,000 Livres a Year, except 40,000 Livres of Annuities to his Domeſtics. The King hath given Leave to bury his Body at St. Dennis, where the Royal Family is interred. There was found in his Cheſt after his Deceaſe, the Sum of Seven Hundred Thouſand Livres in Specie.

The following Promotions are reported: The Right Hon. Charles Townſhend, to be Secretary of War: And Lord Barrington to be Treaſurer of the Navy, in the room of the Hon. George Granville, who is expected to be choſen Speaker of the Houſe of Commons.

There are ſaid to be two Perſons in Trade in this City, that have Orders for Goods of different Sorts for Quebec, to the Amount of 32,000 l.

Eight of the twenty Gun Frigates that are now almoſt compleated in the King's Yards, it is ſaid, will be launched the Beginning of next Month. They are intended to look after the French Privateers.

It is now ſaid that an Expedition againſt the French Forts up the River Miſſiſſippi, will ſoon take Place: If it ſhould ſucceed, a ſpeedy Stop will doubtleſs be put to the Indian War at the Back of Carolina.

The Crews of the French Privateers taken by our Ships, are found to conſiſt nearly in a Proportion of two Thirds Foreigners, eſpecially Spaniards and Portugueze, who, allured by the Proſpect of Gain and the uncommon Succeſs the Enemy have had, flock to France in Sholes.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, Jan. 20.

"From the Meaſures that are taking for the next Campaign, it ſeems impoſſible that the Enemy can ward off the Blows that are meditating againſt them. But amidſt theſe Projects, we know not what to think of the Conduct of Spain. Our Court are juſtly afraid that they ſhall be obliged to divide their Forces, and ſend ſome Troops next Spring towards Italy. The King of Spain, inſtead of poſtponing the adjuſting of the Affairs of Italy, as we hoped, till a general Peace, ſeems determined to avail himſelf of our preſent Embarraſſment. Our Court are well informed that he is augmenting his Forces by Sea and Land, and that he is endeavouring to gain England to favour his Deſign againſt the Auſtrian Claims in Italy. This Affair gives the more Vexation and Anxiety in the preſent Situation of Affairs, as the Court were in Expectation, by continuing the War a little longer, to be able to dictate Peace on their own Terms; well knowing that the firſt Reverſe of Fortune would totally depreſs thoſe who are ſo much elated by their Succeſs."

Feb. 26. The following is an authentic Liſt of the Ships of War to be armed this Spring, by Order of his Catholic Majeſty, dated Buen Retiro, Jan. 6, 1761.

At CARTHAGENA, Nine Ships:

Gallicia 70, Atlante 70, Aquillon 70, Triumfante 70, Soberano 70, Terrible 70, Septentrion 64, Aſtuto 60, Firme 70. Two Frigates, four Bombs, one Fireſhip, one Hoſpital, one Proviſion Ship.

At CADIZ, Thirteen Ships:

Fenix 80, Rayo 80, Venzedo 70, Tigre 70, Aſia 64, Africa 70, Tridente 60, Princeſſa 70, Conquiſtador 70, Aquiles 70, Glorioſo 70, St. Philipe 70, Hector 70.

At FERROL, Thirteen Ships:

Principe 70, Victorioſo 70, Arrogante 70, Ortente 70, Guerretto 70, Gallando 70, Elelo 70, Monarcha 60, Serio 70, Campeon 70, Dichoſo 70, Macnanimo 70, Brillante 70. Two Frigates, one Hoſpital, two Fireſhips, one Proviſion Ship.

Total 35 Line of Battle Ships, four Frigates, four Bombs, three Fireſhips, two Hoſpital, and two Proviſion Ships.

On Monday laſt 300 Quarters of Wheat Meal for Guadaloupe, and 1400 Gallons of Corn Spirits for North-America, were entered for Exportation.

Yeſterday 6000 Gallons of Corn Spirits were entered for Exportation to Quebec; and 4272 Beaver, 3464 Racoon, 4791 Deer, 380 Otter, and 41 Wolves Skins, were imported from Quebec.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, Jan. 27.

"There has perhaps been no Naval Action this War, in which the Reputation of the Engliſh Arms has been ſo duly impreſſed on the Minds of a Portion of all Nations, as that which happened the 24th Inſtant, between the Frigates Felicite and Richmond, the Cannon of the Combat being fairly heard at this Place, which was about 8 Engliſh Miles from the Scene, and which terminated within three Quarters of a Mile of the Shore, near a Village called Freeheyd.

"Captain Donell, of the Felicite, behaved till his Death with all the perſevering Courage of a reſolute Commander; as did the ſecond in Command, who was more happy in eſcaping, and who left his Ship with the Colours flying, when ſhe was a perfect Wreck; that had not the Shore taken her up, ſhe muſt at that Inſtant inevitably have foundered, as near 200 Shot had lodged in her Hull, and the greateſt Part near and under the Water. The Concourſe of People of all Denominations that flocked down from the Hague, and the neighbouring Towns, to be Spectators of the Action, were in Multitude only to be equalled by a vaſt Army. The Prince, all the foreign Miniſters, Gentry, &c. were preſent; nor was there a Horſe within the Diſtrict, on the Saturday or Sunday, but what was employed to carry Somebody to ſee the Tranſaction; and it being fine and clear Weather, they were particularly gratified in the Novelty.

"Monſieur D'Affry, the French Miniſter, has promiſed to recommend the ſurviving Captain of the Felicite, Monſieur Laugarrou, to his Court, to their particular Notice. He has made ſtrong Remonſtrances to the States-General, about the Infraction of the Neutrality of their Territories; and the Dutch Miniſtry ſent off Captain Blackwell of their Guards with a Letter to remonſtrate with Capt. Elphinſtone, who, as we are informed, has ſent them a judicious Reply, which is properly ſupported.

"The States likewiſe gave Orders to their Strand-maſter, who is the proper Officer on that Occaſion, to interpoſe in hoiſting Dutch Colours on board, and in ſaving the Wreck; but it was too late, for before theſe Orders could be executed, ſhe was on Fire, and conſumed to Low Water-mark, which as ſhe keeled, was on one ſide deſtroyed to near the Keel.

"Monſieur D'Affry, notwithſtanding his great Chagrin in ſeeing his Maſter's Ship, ſent on an important Service, ſo unluckily deſtroyed, and the Number of Wounded brought on Shore, among which was the brave, but dead Captain Donell,——could not, amidſt this affecting Scene, decline doing Juſtice to the Magnanimity and Conduct of the Engliſh Commander, who, from the Beginning to the End, acted with that determined Heroiſm and Judgment that could not be ſurpaſſed.

"The ſuperior Seamanſhip and Manœuvres of the Engliſh in the Richmond, was apparent to all, as ſhe was equally aſhore with the Frenchman, and with her, notwithſtanding the other was ſtranded, and the Richmond got off.

"The Felicite came originally from Breſt, laſt from Dunkirk; took in Part of her Cargo at Havre de Grace, which conſiſted of Cloathing, Flour, Wine, Brandy, Cordage, and other Naval Stores for the Colonies; and was proceeding North about. Her Conſort the Hermione being loſt, the Felicite had not only her own, but the other's Packets and Diſpatches, beſides her Paſſengers, which were numerous, and ſome of them Governors.

"General Yorke, who viewed the Tranſaction, and always moſt ſenſibly feels for the Honour and Welfare of his Countrymen, ſeems greatly elated at this good Succeſs, which appears hourly more important, and omits no Circumſtance to confirm what Thouſands ſaw; that if the Breach of Neutrality is diſputed, the Frenchman was an equal Aggreſſor, and that the Engliſh Ship being aſhore, fired for her own Preſervation, and ceaſed when the Enemy did.——In fine, the Hollanders, who in theſe Parts are well inclined to the Engliſh, are not diſpleaſed with the Cataſtrophe of the French Ship, as a caſual Rencounter upon their Coaſt."

February 28. Advices from Paris and Vienna agree, that the Court of Madrid inſiſts upon a Settlement in Italy for the Infant Don Lewis, and a better Eſtabliſhment for Don Philip, and alſo upon an Indemnification for the King of Sardinia's Claims. It was thought the Marriage of the Arch-duke Joſeph with the Princeſs of Parma, might have contributed to the getting theſe Matters referred to the future Congreſs; but it ſeems Spain is too urgent about them, and will not let ſlip the preſent Opportunity, when the Houſe of Auſtria can make no Oppoſition; and thus, to gain her favourite Point, Sileſia, ſhe runs the Riſk of loſing the Netherlands and ſome of her Italian Dominions at leaſt, and probably will never recover Sileſia.

One of the French King's Ships, called the Protee, of 64 Guns, is lent to the Merchants, and fitted out, which Ship, together with a Frigate, are cruizing 80 or 100 Leagues to the Weſtward. Some of our Men of War are under ſailing Orders, to go in ſearch of them.

Mr. Maubert tells us, that more Engliſh Prizes are brought into the ſingle Port of St. Maloes, than there are French carried into all the Ports of England; and adds, it ſhould ſeem that the Engliſh have undertaken to provide us with every Kind of Commodities gratis; for Goods, which in Time of Peace might coſt us 4 or 500,000 Livres, are now purchaſed at the Expence of a few Broadſides.

It is ſaid that his Majeſty has ſettled 300 l. per Annum on the Rev. John Hume, Author of Douglas, a Tragedy, and other Pieces.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Alexander Hood, Commander of his Majeſty's Ship the Minerva, of 32 Guns, and 220 Men, to Mr. Cleveland, dated at Spithead the 3*d of February,* 1761.

I BEG you will be pleaſed to acquaint the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, that on the 23d of January, at Day-light in the Morning, being in the Lat. of 45 Deg. 22 Min. N. Cape Pinas bearing S. by E. diſtant 30 Leagues, I ſaw and gave chace to a large Ship, ſteering to the Weſtward, which I ſoon diſcovered to be an Enemy of two Decks. At 20 Minutes after Ten, with a freſh Gale Eaſterly, and a great Sea, I began a cloſe Engagement with her: At Eleven her Main and Fore-top-maſt went away, and ſoon after ſhe came on board us on the Starboard Bow, and then fell along Side, but the Sea ſoon parted us, when the Enemy fell a-ſtern: About a Quarter after Eleven, the Minerva's Bowſprit went away, and the Fore-maſt ſoon followed it. Theſe were very unfortunate Accidents, and I almoſt deſpaired of being able to attack the Enemy again; however, I cut the Wreck away as ſoon as poſſible; and, about One o'Clock, cleared the Ship of it, by the Loſs of one Man and the Sheet Anchor, I then wore the Ship, and ſtood for the Enemy, who was then about three Leagues to Leeward of me. At Four o'Clock I came up cloſe to the Enemy, and renewed the Attack. About a Quarter before Five ſhe ſtruck, when Poſſeſſion was taken of the Warwick, of 34 Guns, but pierced for 60, commanded by M. le Veger de Belair, who has a King's Commiſſion to rank as Captain of a Fireſhip, having on board 295 Men, 74 of which are a Detachment of King's Troops, from the Company of Beſſon, with two other Officers, and four Paſſengers; the latter were deſtined for Pondicherry. She ſailed from Rochfort the 20th of January, and was bound to the Iſle of France and Bourbon, loaded with Proviſions, Ammunition, and Stores; and by the Account given me, the Enemy had 14 killed, and 32 wounded. I have given my Thanks to the Officers and Crew of his Majeſty's Ship for their firm and ſpirited Behaviour; and I have great Pleaſure in acquainting their Lordſhips with it.

FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE, March 3, 1761.

WESTMINSTER, March 3.

HIS Majeſty gave the Royal Aſſent to ſeveral public, and 23 private Acts; after which his Majeſty was pleaſed to make the following moſt gracious Speech.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

UPON granting new Commiſſions to the Judges, the preſent State of their Offices fell naturally under Conſideration.

In Conſequence of the Act paſſed in the Reign of my late glorious Predeceſſor King WILLIAM the Third, for ſettling the Succeſſion to the Crown in my Family, their Commiſſions have been made during their good Behaviour; but, notwithſtanding that wiſe Proviſion, their Offices have determined upon the Demiſe of the Crown, or at the Expiration of ſix Months afterwards, in every Inſtance of that Nature which has happened.

I look upon the Independency and Uprightneſs of the Judges of the Land, as eſſential to the impartial Adminiſtration of Juſtice, as one of the beſt Securities to the Rights and Liberties of my loving Subjects; and as moſt conducive to the Honour of the Crown; and I come now to recommend this intereſting Object to the Conſideration of Parliament, in order that ſuch further Proviſion may be made, for ſecuring the Judges in the Enjoyment of their Offices, during their good Behaviour, notwithſtanding any ſuch Demiſe, as ſhall be moſt Expedient.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I muſt deſire of you in particular, that I may be enabled to grant and eſtabliſh upon the Judges ſuch Salaries, as I ſhall think proper, ſo as to be abſolutely ſecured to them, during the Continuance of their Commiſſions.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I have nothing to add, but my Thanks for the great Unanimity and Application, with which you have carried on the public Buſineſs, and to deſire you to proceed with the ſame good Diſpoſition, and with ſuch Diſpatch, that this Seſſion may be ſoon brought to a happy Concluſion.

March 5. Yeſterday the Lords and Commons preſented their Addreſſes to his Majeſty, for his gracious Speech the Day before.

The ſame Day the Judges alſo waited on his Majeſty at St. James's, with an Addreſs of Thanks.

Tueſday the Board of Ordnance contracted for a conſiderable Number of Pontoons, and other neceſſary Utenſils of Tin, for the Service of the grand Expedition.

We are credibly informed, that the laſt great Convoy from the Eaſt-Indies, conſiſting of ſeventeen Ships, which came under Convoy of Admiral Pocock, when he returned to Europe, had Effects on board valued at near Nine Millions Sterling.

March 6. When the Houſe of Lords addreſſed his Majeſty for his moſt gracious Speech from the Throne, he was pleaſed to return the following Anſwer.

"My Lords, I thank you for this very dutiful, grateful, and unanimous Addreſs. I am very glad, that what I have laid before you gives you ſo much Satisfaction."

Laſt Friday the Audry, Lawrence, of and from New-York for London, arrived at Plymouth: She had been taken by a French Privateer, but four of the Crew roſe upon the Frenchmen that were on board, and brought her into Plymouth;

for

for which gallant Action, we hear, the Insurers in London made them a Present of an 8th Part of the Vessel and Cargo.

We hear from Hull, that there is an Island in the River Humber, called Cherry Cob, now grown so considerable, that the Government has taken Cognizance of it, and commissioned the Mayor, and other Gentlemen of Repute in the Neighbourhood, to view and estimate the Value, in order to grant a Lease thereof. It is found to contain upwards of 1500 Acres of good Grass Land, ready for embanking, valued at about 600 l. at present, and at above 1100 l. a Year when embanked. It lies further up the River than Sunk-Island, the Level higher, and will be less Charge in embanking.

CHARLES-TOWN, South-Carolina, April 11.

Extract of a Letter from Ninety-Six, dated the 5th Instant.

"Last Night arrived here Timothy Barden (late one of the Fort Loudoun Garrison) Express from Fort Prince George, with Dispatches from the Commandant there, to his Hon. the Lieut. Governor, &c. Our Accounts from thence are, that 47 more Prisoners have been purchased from and delivered up by the Cherokees, 36 of them Soldiers, making in all 67 since Captain M'Intosh has been there.——That Talks to and from the Nation were frequent, from and to the Fort, those from the Indians in a pacific Strain; and from the Fort, adapted to the present Circumstances of Affairs. That the young Warrior of Estatowih was returned from his Incursion to Long-Canes, &c. with such Plenty of Cattle, as enabled him to spare 13 of them, which he sold and delivered for the Use of the Garrison (Some Letters say he made a Present of them to Captain M'Intosh as a Proof of his Desire of Reconcilement). That he pretended he had been down as far as Ninety-Six, and seen many White People, but did not offer to molest one, although he could have killed them at Pleasure, and that he was sorry for what had happened, but looked upon the Path to be now straight again, and hoped it would remain so. That amongst other Things, he said, he found that the Nation had given out he was the Cause of the War's Continuance, but they were as much to blame as himself.——That the Want of Provisions had made a great Part of the Nation desirous of a speedy Accommodation; and their Eagerness to procure some Cloathing was what had induced them so readily to give them up their Prisoners, and (together with the Difficulty of finding them Subsistence) would influence them to bring in the Rest soon. For further Particulars I must refer you to the Express, not having Time to enlarge.——We expect Major Moultrie here in two Days, and are making proper Provision for him. There are some Whispers here about Peace; but believe, at least hope, there is no Foundation for them, and that the Cherokees will first receive the proper Reward for their Perfidy and Cruelty."

We hear, that the regular Troops at Monck's Corner, were to march forward from thence as this Day.——The Highlanders which Colonel Grant sent for from Providence, are returned to Town in Order to reimbark forthwith for New-York, whither General Amherst has ordered them. Near 77 Sick, of the Independents, came to Town at the same Time.

BOSTON, April 27.

We hear that the Honourable House of Representatives, in their last Sessions, hath made Provision, for Captain Saunders, in the Province Sloop, to convoy John Winthrop, Esq; Hollesian Professor of Mathematicks and Philosophy at the College in Cambridge, with the Apparatus and other Necessaries, in said Sloop, to the North East Part of Newfoundland, or to such other Place as said Professor shall think proper, in order to observe the Transit of Venus over the Sun's Disk, on the 6th of June next; and when his Observations are compleated, to attend and convey him back to Boston.

May 4. Tuesday last came to Town from Plymouth, Captain Emerson, late of the Ship Neptune, who informs, that he sailed in said Ship from Piscataqua, about 5 Weeks ago, bound for the West-Indies; that, after being out eight Days, he was taken by a Letter of Marque Polacco, bound from Port-au-Prince to Marseilles: The Frenchman sent the Ship to Port-au-Prince.——That on the 5th of April, in Lat. 36: 55, Long. 45: 15, the Polacco also met with and took the Brig Stork, Captain Cotton, from Cadiz, bound to Plymouth, who, after detaining him three Days, and plundering him to a considerable Value, taking his Arms from him, and throwing his Cannon overboard, gave him the Privilege to ransom, as they had but 31 Men on board, and could not spare any to carry her into Port; upon which Captain Cotton thought proper to comply with their Terms, which was 1000 l. Sterling. The Polacco was called the Victoire, Joseph Beveft, Commander, richly laden with Indigo, Sugar, &c.——Captain Emerson, and his People (except five) were put on board Captain Cotton's Vessel, and arrived at Plymouth about ten Days since.

On Monday last arrived here Capt. John Andrews, in the Brig Catharine, from the West-Indies, and informs, that on the 11th ult. in Lat. 24: 30, Long. 71, he was taken by a French Privateer from the Cape, commanded by Martin Arnauld, with about 20 Men, and some Cannon and Swivels. —Captain Andrews ransomed his Vessel for 700 l. Sterling.

NEW-YORK, May 11.

Wednesday last Captain Deal arrived here in 7 Weeks and 3 Days from Cadiz, but brings no remarkable News. The Spaniards are somewhat stricter than usual in examining the English Vessels that enter their Ports, not allowing any to break Bulk, till they have been searched, and have produced their Manifests, and Officers are kept on board while Vessels are loading.

On the 23d of April Captain Ouchterlony, in Lat. 30: 34, Long. 64: 12, fell in with a French Privateer Sloop, of 10 Guns, who fired several Shot at him, but as soon as he began to play his 6 Pounders upon her, she thought proper to make the best of her Way.—Captain Finglass, lately arrived from London, was chaced by a Sloop much in the same Latitude.

Saturday last his Majesty's Ship the Fowey, Capt. Tonyne, sailed for England, and took under Convoy several Merchantmen bound to the Eastward. CHRISTOPHER KILBY, Esq; Agent Victualler, is gone home Passenger in the Fowey.

PHILADELPHIA, May 14.

The Rebecca, Captain Stewart, from this Port for Charles-Town, in South-Carolina, was lost as she was going over the Bar into that Place.

A Gentleman wrote from Wilmington on Tuesday last, That he was just arrived there in the Schooner Success, Captain Flint, from St. Christophers, who, on his Passage, was taken by a Brig of 16 Guns, and ransomed for 2000 Dollars: That there was a Frigate of 40, and a Sloop of 12 Guns, in Company with the Brig: And that they sailed with a Fleet of about 50 Sail of Vessels, 22 of which for North America, a Number of them thought to be taken, as Captain Flint's Vessel made the fifth Prize that was known of; one of which Captain Flower of this Port, from St. Christophers, taken by the Frigate and ransomed for One Hundred and Seventy-five Pounds Sterling.

The Snow Friendship, Captain Urie, from this Place for Barbados, is taken, and carried into Martinico.——The French Privateers are still very numerous among the Islands, and take many Vessels, notwithstanding the Dilligence of Commodore Douglas, who we hear, has his Ships always at Sea.

ANNAPOLIS, May 21.

On Monday last Week, two very valuable Slaves, who were Fishing at the Falls of Patowmack, were, by a sudden Fresh, wash'd from the Rocks and Drowned.

Yesterday Capt. Pitt, in the Molly, arrived here in eight Days from Boston, but brings no News.
